Conrolus' success story begins in the stables of Claus Delfs from Eichede, Germany. Stoeterij Vissers and Nico Krol (Stal Krol) buy the horse together and took the very talented jumper to the Holstein keuring. Unfortunately Conrolus was not approved. But he got sold to Paul Schockemöhle for €40.000,- later that day. Via the PSI Auction from Paul Schockemöhle and Ullrich Kasselmann Conrolus got sold for the unbelievable amount of €600.000,- in 2011.

He won the last qualifier for the finals for five-year-old showjumpers during the DKB Bundeschampionat in 2012. Patrick Döller was then riding him. Later in his career, Conrolus' name changed into Jumex Sport Conrolus and his rider was the Belgium Alexander Cardon. They became, amongst others, 15th at the World Championships for six-year-olds in 2013 at Zangersheide.
